

WASHINGTON POST AND
TIMES HERALD

APR 11 1964

FOIAb3b

CPYRGHT

Wennerstroem Hearing Shifted

Reuters

STOCKHOLM, April 10 Sweden's biggest spy trial, in its second day, moved today from the main courthouse to a maximum security block nearby as the court heard further evidence in private on the activities of Air Force Col. Stig Wennerstroem.

After yesterday's hearing, Judge Ingvar Aagren told newsmen that Wennerstroem, 53, admitted selling Swedish defense information to Russian intelligence in Moscow, where he was air attache, between 1949 and 1952.

Wennerstroem, also charged with selling Swedish defense information to the Soviet Union when he was in Washington between 1952 and 1957, faces a possible life sentence.